Questions for discussion

1. Begin your time together by going around your table and introducing yourselves to one another.
2. In one sentence, why did you choose to come to Huddle this morning?
3. Can you think of a time that you were faced with the choice between trusting God and telling the truth VS trusting yourself and taking matters into your own hands? What did you do?
4. What would it take for you to become a more truthful man this week, this month, this year ahead?
