

Men's Huddle
October 1, 2009
Joseph and his vision of God
Rob Bugh

I. Genesis 39:1-10 (Joseph and the holiness of God)

What we do to overcome _____ has everything to do with our _____ of God.

A. It's ok for us to be angry at situations, but being angry at _____ is a different matter. If anyone had the so-called right to be angry at God, it was _____.

Virtue is the ability to _____.

Biblical virtue is the unwillingness to violate the _____.

Joseph flipped adversity into advantage because he was _____.

When you see God as _____ you become _____.

B. 1 Peter 1:13-19

Virtue follows _____. The way you live is a function of what you _____, what you _____.

The point is simple: _____.

II. Genesis 41:8-16 (Joseph and the power of God)

A. In verse 16, Joseph not only _____ up about God, he gives _____ all the credit for interpreting dreams. This may be one of the greatest illustrations of _____ in the Bible.

B. Why does Joseph speak up? Answer, because of his _____ of God, he was absolutely convinced of the _____ of God.

C. Daniel 3:16-18—_____

Acts 5:2—_____

Matthew 10:28—_____

Luke 1:37—_____

III. Genesis 45:1-7, 50:19-20 (Joseph and the sovereignty of God)

A. Joseph believed in the _____ of God, the _____ of God and the _____ of God.

B. Joseph believed God was _____ of both _____ and _____, that God is _____ working His plan, and He _____ all things together for good.

Discussion questions:

1. What strikes you about Joseph's life? Why?
2. Joseph wasn't just a good guy, he was a man that knew God. What's the difference? Why does it matter?
3. If our vision of God makes us or breaks us, how can we develop a biblical vision?