

Visionary Parenting

The purpose of this seven part series is to capture a biblical vision for the eternal and spiritual purpose of parenting, to inspire honest self-evaluation, and to empower one another toward life changing action.

- Week 1 God's Grand Vision for the Family
Did God create the family for a reason? What is God's vision for the home and is it evident in our thoughts and actions?
- Week 2 A Vision of Multi-generational Faithfulness
Are we strategically and passionately parenting so that the knowledge and love of God might be passed and expanded through our descendants for generations to come?
- Week 3 A Vision of a God-filled Normal Life
Is God central in your family only in times of crisis, or is the presence and pursuit God woven through the fabric of your home? How does our weekly schedule communicate our deepest values to our children?
- Week 4 A Vision for a Safe Home
How can we lead and create a home that is emotionally and spiritually safe so that home becomes a place of rest rather than irritation? How does the biblical concept of parental blessing affect the heart of a child?
- Week 5 A Vision of Biblical Fatherhood
Biblical fatherhood is under attack. What does it mean to love, serve, and lead our wives? What does it mean to be a spiritual leader?
- Week 6 A Vision for Family Worship
Family worship is the centerpiece of the Christian home. How can we faithfully spend time spiritual time together as a family that draws us closer toward the Lord and toward one another?
- Week 7 A Vision of Discipline that Disciples
What is the purpose of discipline? How do we discipline effectively without losing our mind or our child's heart?

Facilitated by Rob Rienow, Marriage and Family Pastor
Wheaton Bible Church
588-7145, rrienow@wheatonbible.org, www.wheatonbible.org,
www.visionaryparenting.com